

UK Brand Ambassador

(Contract Position- High Commissions & Bonuses)

Wine Country Network, Inc., was established in 2002 in New York as a multi-platform media company dedicated to creating premium-quality, original content about wine, spirits, cuisine, and travel.

In 2002, the company launched Wine Country International ® Magazine, a collectible, glossy, stunning, professional photography-filed magazine with original travel stories, wine and spirits reviews, and ratings. Today, Wine Country International ® has a readership of more than 7.2 million online readers per year, plus 50,000 on-demand print edition readers.

In 2024, the company launched the World Book of Whisky, a bi-annual magazine and picturesque travelogue aimed at exploring the fascinating world of whisky. Unlike other whisky publications, our publication targets the expanding female audience of whisky aficionados.

View publications here:

https://winecountrynetwork.com/publishing-magazines/

The company is also a world leader in producing nine professional beverage competitions specialized in rating wine and spirits. The reviews, ratings, and awards help boost sales and marketing efforts for thousands of beverage brands annually.

For a list of our beverage competitions, please visit:

https://winecountrynetwork.com/beverage-competitions/

This part-time contract position is ideal for a professional with a background in the food and beverage industry. The candidate must be open to networking with UK beverage industry brands and helping spread the word about Wine Country Network's beverage competitions and media offerings.

We are offering high commissions and bonuses for the ideal candidate.

Weekly hours required: 10-15

Potential commissions: 15,000 to 25,000 E in year one.

How to Apply:

•Email your cover letter, CV, and or resume to:

cdavies@winecountrynetwork.com

Qualified applicants will receive an email confirmation and be asked to set an appointment for a Zoom interview.

Wine Country Network, Inc is an equal opportunity employer.